BREAD OF LIFE (NAZARETHA)

Bread of Life, come down from heaven;
Come to feed Your hungry brethren;
(2) Those who eat shall live forever,
Those who drink shall weaken never.

Day by day with strength supplies,
Through the life of Him who died;
(2) Vine of heaven that supplies
This blest Cup of sacrifice.

Bread of heaven, Thee we need,
For God's Son is Food indeed.
(2) Ever may our souls be fed,
With this true and living Bread.

Lord, Thy wounds, our healing give,
To Thy Cross we look and live.
(2) Jesus, may we ever be
Planted, rooted, one in Thee.

4. SOLEMN HOLY DAY ON MONDAY

The Presentation of the Mother of God solemn Holy Day is this Monday, November 21st. Divine Liturgy will be held at 9:00am. According to the Sacred Tradition of the Church, when Mary was three years old, her pious parents, Joachim and Anna had brought their child Mary to the Holy Temple in Jerusalem. At that time, the priest of the Old Testament who received the child Mary was Zachary, the father of St. John the Baptist. Sacred tradition has it that the Blessed Virgin Mary stayed in the dedicated temple life until the age of fifteen. Mary from an early age dedicated Her entire life to the service of the Lord God. She prayed frequently and devoutly. She had a sincere love for neighbor and loved poverty and shared with the poor, those in need. She embodied the perfection of a virtuous life and became a shining example for others to follow. Please come to Church on this Holy Day to honor the Mother of God.

5. THANKSGIVING DAY DIVINE LITURGY

This Thursday, our Thanksgiving Day Divine Liturgy will be held at 9:00am. Begin your Holiday by attending Church on this Special Day and join us as we give Thanks to the Lord for the many Blessings bestowed on us.

TONE 7 (p. 353)

Troparion, Kontakion & Theotokion:

By Your cross You destroyed death; You opened Paradise to the thief; You changed the lamentation of the myrrh-bearers to joy, and charged the apostles to proclaim that You are risen, O Christ our God, offering great mercy to the world.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

No Longer shall the dominion of death be able to hold humanity, for Christ went down shattering and destroying its powers. Hades is bound. The prophets exult with one voice. The Savior has come for those with faith, saying: "Come forth, O faithful, to the resurrection!"

Now and forever and ever. Amen

O all-praised treasury of our resurrection, we hope in you, bring us up from the pit and depth of sins, for you have saved those subject to sin by giving birth to our Salvation, O Virgin before childbirth, and Virgin in childbirth, and still a Virgin after the childbirth.

Prokeimenon:

The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace.

Verse:

Bring to the Lord, O you sons of God; bring to the Lord young rams.

Alleluia:

It is good to give praise to the Lord; and to sing to Your name, O Most High. To announce Your mercy in the morning and Your truth every night.

Communion Verse:

Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia (3).

Epistle (Eph 2:14-22)

A reading from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Ephesians:

Brethren: Christ is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who are near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the holy ones and members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the capstone. Through him the whole structure is held together and grows into a temple sacred in the Lord; in him you also are being built together into a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

Gospel: (Lk 12:16-21)

The Lord told this parable: "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, 'What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?' And he said, 'This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, "Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!"' But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for the one who stores up treasure for himself but is not rich in what matters to God."

PYLYPIVKA (ADVENT) PASTORAL OF THE UKRAINIAN CATHOLIC
HIERARCHY OF THE U.S.A. TO OUR CLERGY, HIEROMONKS AND BROTHERS, RELIGIOUS SISTERS, SEMINARIANS AND BELOVED FAITHFUL

Glory to Jesus Christ!

As we begin “Pylypivka” or Philip’s Fast, we are mindful of so many things happening today: the suffering and loss of life in Ukraine brought about by the Russian invasion; the needs of the new immigrants who have come to our eparchies over the past nine months – primarily women and children. There are so many reasons to be sad and disappointed, discouraged and to lose hope.

If we did not have our faith, we could easily lose hope amongst today’s tragedies in Ukraine, America and around the world. But our faith and our Church help us to understand that there is a bigger picture, an underlying story, and that God is with us throughout it all.

The Philip’s Fast is a time of preparation for the celebration of the Nativity of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We are once again called to embark on a journey to welcome Emmanuel among us! In a short forty days, we will celebrate the Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord. At the Matins of the Nativity we will sing:

“Christ is born, let us glorify Him. Christ comes down from heaven; let us go out and meet Him. Christ lives on earth, let us exalt in joy. All you faithful sing to the Lord, for He has been glorified.”
Hirmos 1, Canon Matins of the Nativity of Our Lord.

How can we prepare ourselves to welcome God among us? How will we glorify Him? Can this Christmas season be a profound and spiritual experience for me?

In order to properly prepare to meet Christ on His feast of the Nativity, Mother Church is giving us forty days to challenge ourselves to live our Christian calling and vocation: to deepen our knowledge of the Word of God, to live a life of community and personal prayer, and to perform acts of charity and mercy both in the church, and in the world. In these three points, we can describe our vocation as a Christian, as well as the vocation of the entire Church.

Now is the time to daily set aside time for reading the Sacred Scripture and to meditate upon it. We are also called to the learning of Divine truth, the truths of the Christian faith and share it with our families - Domestic Church.

We are called to renew our participation in liturgical services especially the Divine Liturgy. The Eucharist is the center of the Christian life. The Eucharist is at the same time the culmination of the parish life and also the source of all its spiritual blessings. During the Philip's Fast, let us invite a friend or neighbor to join us for the liturgical services in our parish community.

During these days, we are called both personally, and as a member of the community to pray, for oneself, and for others, to offer one's self as a sacrifice to God, to forgive others and to ask God for forgiveness, to bless God and to be a blessing for others.

We are also called to look beyond ourselves and be of service to others, especially the less fortunate among us. During the Philip's Fast let us look at our community and find those who need our help and assistance. We can visit the sick, assist the poor, give food for the hungry, care for orphans, support those who suffer injustice, promote peace, and offer comfort for those grieving. We can perform all of this in our community where we live and work, as the needy live among us. In practice, this means to direct our attention and steps toward real people in our communities filled with fear, sadness, and hopelessness. We are called to bring Christ's peace and hope to them. We are called to help cure wounds and heal their traumas.

Let us start this season together! Let us pray, meditate upon the Word of God, sacrifice for one another and trust in God. Then with the renewed joy, we will be able to welcome God among us!
