This is your chance to honor a Loved One (Living or Deceased) by requesting a Divine Liturgy in their Honor.

4. WEEKLY VIGIL CANDLES AVAILABLE FOR SPONSORSHIP

Honor a loved one by sponsoring a Vigil Candle which will be lit for them for an entire week. These 7-day candles are available with your special intention starting at only $5. Contact Helen Pagnotti to reserve yours today. Please call 570-457-4736 home or 570-430-3159 cell phone.

5. HOLY DAY ON TUESDAY

St. Michael the Archangel Holy Day is this Tuesday, November 8th. Divine Liturgy will be held at 9:00am. St. Michael the Archangel is the leader of all Angels and of the Army of God. He has four main responsibilities or offices, as we know from Scripture and Christian Tradition. The first is to combat Satan. The second is to escort the faithful to Heaven at their hour of death. The third is to be a Champion of all Christians, and the Church itself. And the fourth is to call men from life on Earth to their heavenly Judgement. Today, St. Michael is invoked for Protection, especially from lethal enemies. He is also the patron of soldiers, police and doctors. Please come to Church on this Holy Day to Honor this special Saint.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

8. UKRAINIAN CHURCH STUDIES ESTABLISHED AT CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

The inauguration of the Chair of Ukrainian Church Studies and the Bishop Basil H. Losten Endowed Professor was held at the Catholic University of America (CUA). The invocation at the beginning of the ceremony was led by Metropolitan Borys Gudziak, Ukrainian Catholic Archbishop of Philadelphia. After the introductory remarks by the Dean of the School of Theology and Religious Studies, Rev. Mark Morozowich, the newly created Center and Chair were accepted by Peter Kilpatrick, President of the CUA, and Aaron Dominguez, Provost. Before Rev. Peter Galadza, the holder of the newly created chair was presented, Bishop Basil H. Losten, the sponsor of the Center of Ukrainian Church Studies, shared his memories of being a student at Catholic University with faculty and guests gathered at the ceremony. Afterwards, the Chair of the Ukrainian Church Studies offered the three main areas of study at the center: the continued work of the Ukrainian Catholic and Orthodox Study Group of Kyivan Church; the role of the presbytera. The Ukrainian Church Studies Center is part of the Institute for the Study of Eastern Christianity of the School of Theology and Religious Studies of the Catholic University of America. The Ukrainian Catholic and Orthodox Study Group of Kyivan Church was a group of theologians of the Ukrainian Catholics and Orthodox of the Ecumenical Patriarchate that was active in the beginning of the 1990s, whose main work was to study the possibility of the communion of the Ukrainian Catholic Church with the Patriarch of Constantinople without interrupting communion with Rome.

TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST TONE 5 (p.345)

Troparion, Kontakion & Theotokion:

Let us the faithful acclaim and worship the Word, co-eternal with the Father and the Spirit, and born of the Virgin for our salvation. For He willed to be lifted up on the cross in the flesh, to suffer death and to raise the dead by His glorious resurrection.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

You my Savior, descended to Hades, and as the Almighty, You shattered its gates. With Yourself You, as the Creator, raised the dead and shattering the sting of death, and delivered Adam from the curse, O lover of Mankind. And so we cry out: "Save us, O Lord."

Now and forever and ever. Amen

Rejoice, O rampart and protection of those who have recourse to you! Rejoice, O tranquil haven and Virgin, who gave birth in the flesh to your Maker and God! Fail not to intercede for those who sing and worship the Child you bore.

Prokeimenon:

You O Lord, will guard us and will keep us from this generation and forever.

Verse:

Save me O Lord, for there is no longer left a just man.

Alleluia verses:

Your mercies, O Lord, I will sing forever; from generation to generation, I will announce Your truth with my mouth.

For You have said: Mercy shall be built up forever; in the heavens Your truth shall be prepared.

Communion Verse:

Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia (3).

Epistle (Gal 6:11-18)

A reading from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Galatians:

Brethren: See with what large letters I am writing to you in my own hand! It is those who want to make a good appearance in the flesh who are trying to compel you to have yourselves circumcised, only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. Not even those having themselves circumcised observe the law themselves; they only want you to be circumcised so that they may boast of your flesh. But may I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither does circumcision mean anything, nor does uncircumcision, but only a new creation. Peace and mercy be to all who follow this rule and to the Israel of God. From now on, let no one make troubles for me; for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Gospel (Lk 8:41-56)

At that time, a man named Jairus, an official of the synagogue, came to Jesus. He fell at the feet of Jesus and begged him to come to his house, because he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying. As he went, the crowds almost crushed him. And a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years, who had spent her whole livelihood on doctors and was unable to be cured by anyone, came up behind him and touched the tassel on his cloak. Immediately her bleeding stopped. Jesus then asked, "Who touched me?" While all were denying it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds are pushing and pressing in upon you." But Jesus said, "Someone has touched me; for I know that power has gone out from me." When the woman realized that she had not escaped notice, she came forward trembling. Falling down before him, she explained in the presence of all the people why she had touched him and how she had been healed immediately. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you; go in peace." While he was still speaking, someone from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the teacher any longer." On hearing this, Jesus answered him, "Do not be afraid; just have faith and she will be saved." When he arrived at the house he allowed no one to enter with him except Peter and John and James, and the child's father and mother. All were weeping and mourning for her, when he said, "Do not weep any longer, for she is not dead, but sleeping." And they ridiculed him, because they knew that she was dead. But he took her by the hand and called to her, "Child, arise!" Her breath returned and she immediately arose. He then directed that she should be given something to eat. Her parents were astounded, and he instructed them to tell no one what had happened.
