SUNDAY OF ZACCHAEUS

Troparion (8): You came down from on high, O Merciful One, and accepted three days of burial to free us from our sufferings. O Lord, our life and our resurrection, glory be to You.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion (8): When You rose from the tomb, You also raised the dead and resurrected Adam. Eve exults in Your resurrection, and the ends of the world celebrate Your rising from the dead, O Most Merciful One.

Now and for ever and ever: Amen.

Theotokion (8): To you, O Mother of God, the invincible leader, we your servants ascribe these victory hymns in thanksgiving for our deliverance from evil. With your invincible power free us from all dangers that we may cry out to you: Hail, O Bride and pure Virgin!

Prokimenon:

Pray and give praise to the Lord our God.

Verse: In Judea God is known; His name is great in Israel.

EPISTLE (1Tim 4,9-15)

A reading from the First Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to Timothy:

Brethren: This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance. For this we toil and struggle, because we have set our hope on the living God, who is the savior of all, especially of those who believe. Command and teach these things. Let no one have contempt for your youth, but set an example for those who believe, in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity. Until I arrive, attend to the reading, exhortation, and teaching. Do not neglect the gift you have, which was conferred on you through the prophetic word with the imposition of hands of the presbyterate. Be diligent in these matters, be absorbed in them, so that your progress may be evident to everyone.

Alleluia Verses:

Come, let us rejoice in the Lord; let us acclaim God our Savior.

Let us come before His countenance with praise and acclaim Him with psalms.

GOSPEL (Lk 19,1-10)

At that time, entering Jericho, Jesus intended to pass through the town. Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was; but he could not see him because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way. When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received Him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner." But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

Communion Verse:

Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia (3X)

U.S. MILITARY ARCHBISHOP VISITS UKRAINE

Ukraine's Catholic military chaplains will eventually be "catalysts for the rebuilding" of their war-torn nation, said the president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, whose three days in Ukraine included at times sheltering with Ukrainians as Russian missiles relentlessly rained down on civilian centers. "They will continue to help those who fought in the war return to civilian life," said Archbishop Timothy P. Broglio, who also serves as head of the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA. The archbishop visited the Ukrainian cities of Lviv and Kyiv Dec. 27-29, meeting with Major Archbishop Sviatoslav Shevchuk of Kyiv-Halych, the head of the Ukrainian Catholic Church, and a number of leaders in Ukraine's military chaplaincy, among them Jesuit Father Andriy Zelinskyy, coordinator of chaplains for the Ukrainian Catholic Church. The trip was a part of Archbishop Broglio's annual Christmas pastoral visit to U.S. military deployments overseas, which usually takes him to installations in the Middle East. But with some 10,000 U.S. military personnel currently stationed in Poland alone, Archbishop Broglio chose to head to that country as well as to Latvia, Lithuania and Ukraine. "When the bishops elected me their president (in November 2022), the visit (to Ukraine) was made even more pressing," he said. The decision was also inspired by his conversations with Archbishop Borys Gudziak, head of the Ukrainian Catholic archeparchy of Philadelphia, who has steadfastly advocated on behalf of Ukraine since Russia first invaded Crimea in 2014. Since then, tens of thousands of Ukrainians have been killed, with some 12.8 million now displaced across Europe and internally. Ukraine's National Information Bureau reports some 11,130 Ukrainian children have been deported to Russia. Prosecutors in Ukraine are investigating at least 50,000 war crimes committed by Russian forces since February, and the nation has filed an application with the International Court of Justice to charge Russia with committing genocide. Archbishop Broglio also concelebrated at a funeral for three Ukrainian soldiers killed in action, extending gratitude for their sacrifice. The archbishop also said he hopes Ukraine's military chaplains will "have a role in advising the commanders and political leaders" in their nation's "reconstruction and rebuilding," and urged Catholics to continue to pray for Ukraine.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

10. ANNOUNCEMENT-EMAIL DISTRIBUTION LIST

This year we will be composing an email distribution list of parishioners, former parishioners, and friends of St. Vladimir's Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church here in Scranton. It will be an information distribution list ONLY. It will be composed of many, many names, and its purpose will be to quickly distribute news and information to interested parties, and not intended for questions or "reply to all" responses. We are asking anyone who is a parishioner to simply use their registration card that is first in the envelope box that was issued to all who are registered as parishioners at St. Vladimir's. Anyone else is certainly more than welcome to become part of this distribution system. Please be patient as there are many names on the list and it is being manually input, so it will take time. But important and emergency information can now hopefully be distributed in a timely manner. Husband and wife can each be included separately as well as anyone else in the household who wishes to be included. Please tell your friends that might be interested in our information distribution. We welcome all who are friends of our church, near and far! Thank you for your cooperation in this. Please see Jean Pedley for any other questions as she is coordinating the list. Also, Mark Izak has agreed to help collect email addresses too. THANK YOU!
