3. THE MONTH OF OCTOBER IS "RESPECT LIFE MONTH"

The Church has long designated the month of October as a month of prayer and reflection on the precious gift of life that we as children of God share. Life is a gift from God the Creator of all things visible and invisible. We all are precious in the eyes of the Lord God. All human life is sacred and precious. Let each of our voices be heard by speaking up and on behalf of those who are unable to do so for themselves. Let us defend our right to life, unhindered by others and in accord with the Holy Will of Our Heavenly Father.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

4. BEATITUDE SVIATOSLAV MEETS WITH POPE FRANCIS AT VATICAN

His Beatitude Sviatoslav met with Pope Francis at the Apostolic Palace in the Vatican this month. The Head of the UGCC described to Pope Francis the challenges of pastoral ministry during wartime, emphasizing humanitarian concerns and the need for continued comprehensive support for Ukraine from the Holy See. His Beatitude Sviatoslav presented to Pope Francis the decisions of the last Synod of the UGCC, whose primary task is evangelization in the context of war. "Today we have an essential task — to resist the militarization of religion, which we witness in the Russian aggression against Ukraine, as well as to open the word of God to people amidst severe hardships, to be preachers of hope even in the desperate conditions of war," said the Head of the UGCC. The Head of the UGCC thanked Pope Francis for his consistent assistance and mediation in freeing prisoners, especially Redemptorist priests Ivan Geleta and Bohdan Levytsky. He informed the Holy Father about their horrific experience of captivity in Russian torture chambers and their service to the Church after their liberation. The Holy Father promised the Head of the UGCC that he would continue to support Ukraine and engage all diplomatic channels of the Holy See to end the war in Ukraine. The Pope pointed out the need to mobilize all efforts to help Ukraine on the verge of winter and assured that he "will not let the world forget about Ukraine." Pope Francis expressed gratitude to the Head of the UGCC for serving the Ukrainian people "during such a difficult period in history—for being with your people as a true shepherd."

8. SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR HURRICANE VICTIMS THIS WEEKEND

In recent weeks, we have seen the heartbreaking devastation caused by Hurricanes Helene and Milton. While we cannot control the forces of nature, we can control how we respond—with compassion, generosity, and unity. As followers of Christ, we are called to care for the sick, the wounded, and those who have lost everything. Our Ukrainian Catholic community has felt the impact of generosity, having experienced the world's support for Ukraine in its time of need. Now, it's our turn to extend that same support to those facing hardship right here at home. On October 20, we will host a special collection in our parishes to support Catholic Charities in their relief efforts. Your generosity matters. Together, let's make sure no one faces this challenge alone. +Borys Gudziak Archbishop of Philadelphia for Ukrainians Metropolitan of Ukrainian Catholics in the United States +Paul Chomnycky, OSBM Eparch of Stamford +Benedict Aleksiychuk Eparch of St. Nicholas in Chicago +Bohdan J. OUR MISSION PARISH: Saints Peter and Paul Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church

The Rich Man vs. Lazarus

Lazarus, the beggar, is called by his name because he was a saint, but the man who is rich and proud is not deemed worthy of a name. ... The meaning of Lazarus' name is boethoumenos, one who has been helped; he is not a helper, but one who has been helped. He was a poor man and, in his poverty, the Lord came to his assistance. "Who lay at his gate, covered with sores." The rich man, in purple splendor, is not accused of being avaricious, nor of carrying off the property of another, nor of committing adultery, nor, in fact, of any wrongdoing; the evil alone of which he is guilty is pride. Most wretched of men, you see a member of your own body lying there outside at your gate, and have you no compassion? If the precepts of God mean nothing to you, at least take pity on your own plight, and be in fear lest you become such as he. Why do you save what is superfluous to your pleasures? Give in alms to your own member what you waste. I am not telling you to throwaway your wealth. What you throw out, the crumbs from your table, offer as alms.

"Who lay at his gate." He was lying at the gate in order to draw attention to the cruelty paid to his body and to prevent the rich man from saying, "I did not notice him; he was in a corner; I could not see him; no one announced him to me." He lay at the gate; you saw him every time you went out and every time you came in. When your throngs of servants and clients were attending you, he lay there full of ulcers. If your eyes disdained to look upon putrid flesh, did not your ears, at least, hear his plea? "Who lay at his gate, covered with sores." He did not have just one sore, his whole body was sores, so that the magnitude of his suffering might arouse your utmost compassion.

St. Jerome
