As part of its Religion on Fire project, the Workshop for Academic Study of Religion has prepared a 34-page report on the destruction of church buildings in Ukraine caused by the war unleashed by Russia between February 24, 2022, and August 24, 2024. According to the WASR, a total of 512 churches were damaged, of which 234 were lightly damaged (up to 15%), 141 churches received up to 45% damage, 91 were severely damaged (up to 75%), and 46 were completely destroyed (over 75% of damage). Most of them are churches of the UOC-MP - 310, Protestant - 171, OCU - 53, Greek and Roman Catholic - 16, Jewish - 15, and Muslim - 7. While most of the churches were damaged in the frontline area, Russian aggression has caused the destruction of churches in more than 2/3 of Ukraine's regions.

Pope: Invite Holy Spirit to protect your Marriage and Children

During his Wednesday General Audience, Pope Francis focuses on the sacrament of marriage, saying keeping faith and the Holy Spirit at the forefront can preserve and protect the love of married couples and their children. Pope Francis offered this reminder to the faithful gathered in St. Peter's Square during his Wednesday General Audience. As he continued his catechesis series on the Holy Spirit in the life of the Church, the Pope focused on the sacrament of marriage. The Pope began by saying he wished to reflect, in particular, on what the Holy Spirit has to say about the family. "What can the Holy Spirit have to do with marriage? A great deal, perhaps the essential, and I will try to explain why!" Christian marriage, the Pope highlighted, is the sacrament of self-giving, one for the other, of man and woman. "This is how," he recalled, "the Creator intended it when He 'So God created man in His own image... male and female He created them.'" The human couple, he noted, is therefore the first and most elementary realization of the communion of love that is the Trinity. The Pope stressed that married couples "should form a first person plural, a 'we,'" saying, "They should stand before each other as an 'I' and a 'you,' and stand before the rest of the world, including the children, as a 'we.'" "How beautiful," he marveled, "it is to hear a mother say to her children: 'Your father and I...,' as Mary said to Jesus when they found Him at the age of twelve in the temple, and to hear a father say: 'Your mother and I,' as if they were one." The Holy Father went on to lament how much children suffer when there is a lack of this unity between their parents, and how greatly children are impacted when their parents separate. "No-one says that such unity is an easy task, least of all in today's world," the Pope acknowledged. However, he continued, "this is the truth of things as the Creator designed them, and it is therefore in their nature." Certainly, Pope Francis recognized, it may seem easier and quicker to build "on sand than on rock." However, he added, "the consequences of marriages built on sand are, unfortunately, there for all to see, and it is mainly the children who pay the price." The Holy Father concluded by offering an observation about the spiritual preparation couples should embrace before their wedding. "It would not be a bad thing if alongside the information of a legal, psychological and moral nature that is given in the preparation of engaged couples for marriage, this 'spiritual' preparation was studied more deeply," he said. As Pope Francis recalled an Italian proverb which says, "Never place a finger, never intervene, between husband and wife." Yet, he said, "There is in fact a 'finger' to be placed between husband and wife, the 'finger of God': the Holy Spirit!"

Two Miracles Attest that Jesus is the Resurrection and Life

Christ foreknew His mystery, even before the foundations of the world. It was in the last ages of the world that He arose for the inhabitants of earth. Having borne the sin of the world, He abolished both it and death, which is its consequence and was brought upon us by its means. He plainly said, "I am the resurrection and the life," and "he who believes in me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, but has passed from death unto life." We will see this fulfilled in facts. The ruler of the synagogue of the Jews came near and, embracing the Savior's knees, begged Him to deliver his daughter from the bonds of death. Look, she already was brought down to this and was in extreme danger! The Savior consented and set out with him. He was even hurrying on to the house of the one who invited Him and was aware that what was being done would profit many of those who followed Him and would also be for His own glory. On the way, He saved the woman who was the victim of a severe and incurable malady. No one could stop her issue of blood that ruined the art of physicians. No sooner had she touched the hem in faith, than He immediately healed her. A miracle so glorious and revealed was, so to speak, the work merely of Christ's journey.
