ALWAYS PROTECT US

Always protect us, be with us Mary,
In all the hardships of our life,
And be our hope when death comes to call us
You are the help in our journey's strife.

Our hearts as faith-gift to you,
We worship God, He is Our Father,
We worship God, He is our King,
We worship God, He is our Father,
We worship God, He is our King.

We long for God to be at the center
Of every home and family,
We pray His spirit lives in our children
That knowing God they'll walk joyfully.

Repeat... We bring .....

Saint Anastasia of Rome

According to legend, the Holy Martyr Anastasia was born in 281 A.D. in Rome to a very wealthy family. Her father Pretestatus was a Senator. Her mother Fausta was Christian. However, during these times to be a Christian could mean giving up your life. With this in mind, Fausta baptized her daughter in secret and chose Chrysogonus, a Christian gentleman, as her tutor. As a young girl she visited the catacombs with him and began to develop her Christian identity. In a strange twist of fate, Anastasia would later marry Publius, a pagan, who prohibited her from helping the poor and Christian people persecuted in Rome. However, her husband died during a violent storm. After his passing, Anastasia was now able once again to practice freely her Christian charity.

After her mentor Chrysogonus was arrested and martyred, she moved to Sirmio which was the capital of North Illyria, in Orient. There she carried out her acts of charity and helped the Christian prisoners endure their sufferings, curing their sores and injuries and bringing them food. She used to pay the jailers in order to carry out her merciful service.

Later on, Anastasia was discovered and accused in front of the Prefect Probus. He interrogated her but failed to make her renounce her Christian beliefs, so he shackled her by her feet for one month and then had her placed on a damaged ship, along other people convicted to death, in order to drown them. But the ship didn't sink and finally came to rest on the shores of Palmaria Island, where all the survivors who by then had converted to the Christian belief, were killed. Anastasia, after being crucified on four poles, was burned and subsequently beheaded. Her remains were gathered by a woman, Apolonia, who buried them in a vineyard in 304.
