Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, may we humbly pray;
and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Divine Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls.

PRAYERS FOR YOUR THANKSGIVING TABLE

THANKSGIVING PRAYER

This Thanksgiving let those of us who have much and those who have little gather at the welcoming table of the Lord. At this blessed feast, may rich and poor alike remember that we are called to serve one another and to walk together in God's gracious world. With thankful hearts we praise our God who like a loving parent denies us no good thing.

THANKSGIVING PRAYER FOR CHILDREN

Bless this milk and bless this bread. Bless this soft and waiting bed. Where I presently shall be wrapped in sweet security. Through the darkness, through the night let no danger come to fright my sleep till morning once again beckons at the window pane. Bless the toys whose shapes I know, the shoes that take me to and fro up and down and everywhere. Bless my little painted chair. Bless the lamplight, bless the fire, bless the hands that never tire in their loving care of me. Bless my friends and family. Bless my Father and my Mother and keep us close to one another. Bless other children, far and near, and keep them safe and free from fear. So let me sleep and let me wake in peace and health, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Saints and Feasts Philip the Apostle November 14

This Apostle, one of the Twelve, was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and was a compatriot of Andrew and Peter. He was instructed in the teachings of the Law, and devoted himself to the study of the prophetic books. Therefore, when the Lord Jesus called him to the dignity of apostleship, he immediately sought out and found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found Him of Whom Moses in the Law and the Prophets did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph" (John 1.45). Having preached Jesus the God-man throughout many parts of Asia Minor, and having suffered many things for His Name's sake, he was finally crucified upside down in Hierapolis of Phrygia.

Prayer is the Light of the Spirit

Prayer and conversation with God is a supreme good. ... I do not mean the prayer of outward observance but prayer from the heart, not confined to fixed times or periods, but continuous throughout the day and night.

Our spirit should be quick to reach out toward God not only when it is engaged in meditation; at other times also, when it is carrying out its duties, caring for the needy, performing works of charity, giving generously in the service of others, our spirit should long for God, and call Him to mind, so that these works may be seasoned with the salt of God's love, and so make a palatable offering to the Lord of the universe.

The spirit... like a child crying tearfully for its mother, it craves the milk that God provides. It seeks the satisfaction of its own desires, and receives gifts outweighing the whole world of nature. ... I speak of prayer, not words. It is the longing for God ... a gift not given by man but by God's grace. The apostle Paul says: We do not know how we are to pray but the Spirit himself pleads for us with inexpressible longings.

Practice prayer from the beginning. Paint your house with the colors of modesty and humility. Make it radiant with the light of justice. Decorate it with the finest gold leaf of good deeds. Adorn it with the walls and stones of faith and generosity.
