9. CHRISTMASTIME BUS TRIP

Our St. Vladimir parish is again sponsoring a Christmastime bus trip to New York City on Saturday, December 8, 2018. There will be several stops in Manhattan: the Ground Zero area for part of our group who have already made advance 911 Museum reservations; Little Italy; the Ukrainian Village on the lower East Side; Bryant Park's Winter Village housing 125 holiday vendors in midtown; and, the Christmassy Fifth Avenue area. We'll have an opportunity to enjoy an Italian lunch, buy some Ukrainian goodies and chachkas, see many beautiful Christmas decorations as only New York City can do it including the famous Christmas tree at Rockefeller Center and more. Participants can follow the above itinerary or are free to do their own thing for part or all of the day. The 55 passenger Martz bus will leave from the church at 8:00am and departure from New York City for home will be at 8:45pm. Cost is $42.00 per person. A portion of the proceeds again this Christmas will be given to the orphans at St. Nicholas Orphanage in Kolomyia, Ukraine. For additional details and reservations contact Paul Ewasko at 570 563-2275. Early reservations are encouraged as the bus will fill quickly as it did for last year's New York City bus trip. Check should be made out to St. Vladimir Church and mailed to Paul at 55 Waterford Road, Dalton PA 18414.

REFLECTION FOR THE WEEK

With those who take advice is wisdom.-Prov 13:10

Prayerful Confession

We should think carefully about making every so often a face to face Confession (confession with prayerful dialogue)_ at a time when both confessor counselor and penitent counselee are not in a hurry.

Sharing guilt and being assured that a merciful Father understands and forgives is beneficial. Moreover, the search for growing in love needs guidance. Do you want to grow as a Christian without being afraid to change a few habits if "prayer dialogue" points in that direction? Pray to the Holy Spirit, who often operates through fellow human beings.

Christ Continues to Catch People

He told Simon and his companions to sail off a little from the land and to let down the net for a draught. But they replied that they had been toiling the whole night and had caught nothing. However, in the name of Christ, they let down the net, and immediately it was full of fish. By a visible sign and by a miraculous type and representation, they were fully convinced that their labor would be rewarded, and the zeal displayed in spreading out the net of the gospel teaching would be fruitful. Within this net they should most certainly catch the shoals of the heathen. But note that neither Simon nor his companions could draw the net to land. Speechless from fright and astonishment for their wonder had made them mute, they beckoned to their partners, to those who shared their labors in fishing, to come and help them in securing their prey. For many have taken part with the Holy Apostles in their labors, and still do so, especially those who inquire into the meaning of what is written in the holy Gospels. Yet besides them there are also others: the pastors and teachers and rulers of the people, who are skilled in the doctrines of truth. For the net is still being drawn, while Christ fills it, and calls to conversion those who, according to the Scripture phrase, are in the depths of the sea, that is to say, those who live in the surge and waves of worldly things.

Saint Cyril of Alexandria
