13. BRIGHT WEEK

All the days of this week are considered as constituting one day with Easter. It is called the New Week or Bright Week for two reasons: because the whole creation is renewed by Christ, and because the catechumens who were baptized on Easter wore their white (baptismal) robes all week long. The catechumens were those who were instructed in the faith during the Great Fast in preparing to receive the Holy Mysteries (Sacraments) of initiation on Easter Sunday. The three Holy Mysteries of initiation were: Baptism, Chrismation, and the Holy Eucharist. The joyous celebration of the Lord's resurrection continues the entire week. The royal doors of the iconostasis are kept open the entire week to signify that Christ by His Resurrection opened the gates to heaven.

Great and Holy Pascha

It is the Pasch; the Pasch of the Lord.

O You, who are truly all in all!

The joy, the honor, the food and the delight of every creature;

through You the shadows of death
have fled away,

and life is given to all,

the gates of heaven are flung open.

God becomes man

and man is raised up to the likeness of God.

O divine Pasch!

O Pasch, light of new splendor.

The lamps of our souls will no more burn out.

The flame of grace,
divine and spiritual,

burns in the body and soul,
nourished by the resurrection of Christ.

We beg you, O Christ, Lord God, eternal king of the spiritual world, stretch out your protecting hands
over your holy Church
and over your holy people;
defend them, keep them, preserve them.

Raise up your standard over us and grant that we may sing with Moses
the song of victory,
for yours is the glory and the power
for all eternity! Amen

St. Hippolytus of Rome
