ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. BASKET OF CHEER RAFFLE

As a fundraiser, we have found raffling off a basket of cheer to be a very worthwhile project. Therefore, as part of this year's Harvest Dinner activities, a basket of wines and spirits will be awarded some lucky winner. Rather than waiting to collect donations closer to the November 17 event, we prefer to begin collecting them early so that tickets could then be available for sale during various events at our parish center preceding the November dinner such as after-Liturgy socials, pyrohy pick-ups, flea market, LUC meeting, etc. Kristen Waznak has again volunteered to coordinate the project and asks that items for the basket be brought to our hall and clearly marked with the name of the person making the donation. Kristen can be reached at 570 241-1223. Depending upon the number and variety of items available this year, we may even be able to raffle two baskets. Thank you again to all who donated to our last most successful cheer raffle and for considering supporting this year's project.

2. FOOD FESTIVAL

Say To this Mountain, Move

The disciples seem to me to be in anxiety and fear that they had lost the grace with which they had been entrusted. For they had received power over unclean demons.

So they approached Him in private and asked Him the question, not out of shame (for if the matter had got out and they were criticized, it would have been superfluous for the future to have been ashamed of admitting it in their words) but because what they were going to ask Him was secret and of great moment.

What, then, does Christ say? "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you." But if you say "Where did they move a mountain?" I will say that they did things much greater than that in raising up innumerable dead. For moving a mountain and moving death from a body are not at all comparable.

After them, other saints, far inferior to the disciples, are said to have moved mountains when necessity demanded. It is clear that the disciples also would have done so had necessity demanded. But if there was never need at that time, do not find fault with them.

St. John Chrysostom
