ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. 50/50 RAFFLE

The upcoming and ongoing fundraiser is now underway, just an additional way for us to make up for lost fundraiser income to help with the upcoming heating bills this winter. You should have received your raffle tickets by now. If not, contact Jean Pedley or Kristen Waznak. Hopefully everyone will be able to sell at least those that were mailed to you. But PLEASE try to sell more if you are able! Tickets are available AFTER each Divine Liturgy and you can make returns that way or by dropping in the collection basket in an envelope marked "50/50 raffle returns". Returns can also be mailed to the rectory. Special THANK YOU to the Edward Chomko Funeral Home for underwriting the cost of the raffle ticket printing!!!! God bless!

2. ENTRANCE OF THE MOTHER OF GOD INTO THE TEMPLE

Our Church commemorates the Feast of the Entrance of the Mother of God into the Temple on November 21st. According to the Sacred Tradition of the Church, when Mary was three years old, Her pious parents, Joachim and Anna had brought their child Mary to the Holy Temple in Jerusalem. At that time, the priest of the Old Testament who received the child Mary was Zachary, the father of St. John the Baptist. Sacred tradition has it that the Blessed Virgin Mary stayed in the dedicated temple life until the age of fifteen. Mary from an early age dedicated Her entire life to the service of the Lord God. She prayed frequently and devoutly. She had a sincere love for neighbor and loved poverty and shared with the poor, those in need. She embodied the perfection of a virtuous life and became a shining example for others to follow.

3. THANKSGIVING DAY DIVINE LITURGY

This Thursday, our Thanksgiving Day Divine Liturgy will be held at 9:30am. Begin your Holiday by attending Church on this Special Day and join us as we give Thanks to the Lord for the many Blessings bestowed on us.

Loving God,
who created and sustains the universe,
who loved us all into being,
and who gives us every good thing,
we thank you for the blessings that you bring into our lives.
We thank you for the gift of life itself,
which you gave us in our mothers' wombs.
We thank you for the fresh start of each new day,
which is a sign of your renewing and creative love.
And we thank you for our friends, our families,
our neighbors and our coworkers, whose human love is an image of your divine care. Increase our gratitude this Thanksgiving Day, and help us to recognize all the good things that we have, both large and small.
And magnify our desire to share what we have with others,
so that they too may be grateful to you, Loving God.
Amen.

Surrounded by Wealth, Blind to Charity

What does the rich man do, surrounded by a great supply of many blessings beyond all numbering? In distress and anxiety, he speaks the words of poverty. He says, "What should I do?" ... He does not look to the future. He does not raise his eyes to God.

He does not count it worth his while to gain for the mind those treasures that are above in heaven. He does not cherish love for the poor or desire the esteem it gains. He does not sympathize with suffering.

It gives him no pain nor awakens his pity. Still more irrational, he settles for himself the length of his life, as if he would also reap this from the ground. He says, "I will say to myself, 'Self, you have goods laid up for many years. Eat, drink, and enjoy yourself.'" "O rich man," one may say, "You have storehouses for your fruits, but where will you receive your many years? By the decree of God, your life is shortened."

"God," it tells us, "said to him, 'You fool, this night they will require of you your soul. Whose will these things be that you have prepared?'"

Saint Cyril of Alexandria
