6. LEADERS OF UKRAINIAN ORGANIZATIONS MEET WITH ARCHBISHOP AND NEW PRIESTS

On May 26 via Zoom, leaders of Ukrainian organizations throughout the US met with Archbishop Borys and the priests who recently arrived from Ukraine to serve in the Philadelphia Archeparchy. The priests and their families learned about the activities, goals, and plans of the various organizations. Participants of the meeting included teachers, the director of the Ukrainian Heritage School, representatives of Ukrainian financial institutions, and various other non-governmental organizations. During the meeting, Archbishop Borys announced that in the coming months, three additional priests from Ukraine have agreed to join the Philadelphia Archeparchy. The participants of the meeting agreed that Ukrainian organizations need more involvement from the clergy and welcomed participation of newcomers in the projects and initiatives launched by the Ukrainian Community.

The Apostles' Call and Ours

But note both their faith and their obedience. For though they were in the midst of their work (and you know how time consuming a chore fishing is), when they heard His command they did not delay or procrastinate. They did not say, "Let us return home, and talk things over with our family." Instead, "they left everything behind and followed," even as Elisha did when he followed Elijah. For Christ seeks this kind of obedience from us, such that we delay not even for a moment, though something absolutely most necessary should vehemently press in on us.

St. John Chrysostom

The kingdom of heaven has no price tag on it. It is worth as much as you have. For Zacchaeus it was worth half of what he owned, because the other half that he had unjustly pocketed he promised to restore four-fold. For Peter and Andrew it was worth the nets and vessel they had left behind; for the widow it was worth two copper coins; for another it was worth a cup of cold water. So, as we said, the kingdom of heaven is worth as much as you have.

St. Gregory the Great

Like Peter, Andrew, James and John, we have been called to discipleship. As such, we are given the name of "Christian." But are we conscious what that name stands for, what responsibility comes with it? It is more than just a title or a label. To be a disciple of Christ, to bear the name of Christian, compels us to take on the responsibility – regardless of the difficulty and cost – of living the Gospel every moment of our lives.
