5. REDNER'S RECEIPTS

Regarding the Redner receipt church participation program: Since COVID it's been difficult to process receipts. Here is the way the program works: You need to get a Redners Card first. Then you have to physically turn in the receipts to Leslie Izak. You must have your Redner's number on the receipt. But keep in mind, if the church doesn't get over $10,000 a year in receipts, we do not receive anything.

6. ARCHBISHOP BORYS VISITS FIRST UKRAINIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN U.S.

Archbishop Metropolitan Borys Gudziak celebrated the Divine Liturgy at St. Michael's Ukrainian Catholic Church in Shenandoah, PA. This parish, established in 1884, is considered the oldest Ukrainian Catholic congregation on American soil. Ukrainian immigration to the US began in the 1870s. On July 16, 1884, the faithful of Shenandoah wrote to Metropolitan Sylvester Sembratowych, then head of the UGCC, for a priest of their own rite and language. In 1884, Rev. John Voliansky arrived in town. He held the first service shortly before Christmas 1885 and the next year supervised the purchase of two buildings on Center St. Over a period of four years, Voliansky established Greek-Catholic communities and built churches in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Minnesota. St. Michael's congregation continued to grow as family members followed one another into Pennsylvania's coal region, and in 1909 the first church building was completed. The inaugural Divine Liturgy was celebrated on Palm Sunday 1909.

Condemn Ourselves for Our Sins, and to Forgive Others

Two things therefore does He here require, both to condemn ourselves for our sins, and to forgive others; and the former for the sake of the latter, that this may become more easy (for he who considers his own sins is more indulgent to his fellow-servant); and not merely to forgive with the lips, but from the heart.

Let us not then thrust the sword into ourselves by being revengful. For what grief has he who has grieved you inflicted upon you, like you will work unto yourself by keeping your anger in mind, and drawing upon yourself the sentence from God to condemn you? For if indeed you are watchful, and keepest yourself under control, the evil will come round upon his head, and it will be he that will suffer harm; but if you should continue indignant, and displeased, then yourself will undergo the harm not from him, but from yourself.

For if we be willing, no one shall be able to injure us, but even our enemies shall advantage us in the greatest degree. And why do I speak of men? For what can be more wicked than the devil; yet nevertheless, even hence have we a great opportunity of approving ourselves; and Job shows it. But if the devil has become a cause of crowns, why are you afraid of a man as an enemy?

See then how much you gain, bearing meekly the spiteful acts of your enemies. First and greatest, deliverance from sins; secondly, fortitude and patience; thirdly, mildness and benevolence; for he that knows not how to be angry with them that grieve him, much more will he be ready to serve them that love him. Fourthly, to be free from anger continually, to which nothing can be equal. For of him that is free from anger, it is quite clear that he is delivered also from the despondency hence arising, and will not spend his life on vain labors and sorrows.

St. John Chrysostom
