New Ukrainian Priest celebrates Liturgy in Roman Catholic Cathedral

On Sunday, May 8th, newly ordained priest of the Archeparchy of Philadelphia, Rev. Volodymyr Radko, celebrated his First Mass of thanksgiving in Roman Catholic Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul in Philadelphia. Ordained almost three months ago in Ukraine, Fr. Volodymyr is a graduate of Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary, which is the diocesan seminary of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. The Liturgy in the Byzantine-Ukrainian rite in Roman Catholic basilica was also an occasion to pray for peace in Ukraine. "In the Roman Church, as many of you know, today, the 4th Sunday of Easter, is also called Good Shepperd Sunday. This is a day when we pray for numerous vocations to the priesthood and certainly our prayers are enhanced as we are able to be joined by a newly ordained priest, Volodymyr. We pray for him, for the seminarians who are with us, and for many more vocations to the priesthood. We have a confidence that the Good Shepard, Who loves his flock, will listen to our prayers", noted the rector of the cathedral Rev Gerald Dennis Gill in his sermon. In the words of Fr. Gill, the Liturgy was an occasion of thanking God for the communion between Roman Catholics and Ukrainian Catholics who can freely, beautifully, and richly express their faith. As we celebrate joyfully, we are all mindful of Ukraine. Unlike any other war, probably because of technology, we are able to observe the war in Ukraine day-by-day and be caught up by the terrific horrors that had been inflicted upon Ukraine. We pray for peace, for the end of the terror of war in Ukraine, and we pray for peace in our hearts", Fr. Gill emphasized. At the end of the Liturgy, Fr. Volodymyr expressed his gratitude to the cathedral parish, Fr. Gill, and Fr. Matthew Biedrzycki, Parochial Vicar, as well as Archbishop of Philadelphia, Nelson Pérez, and the Ukrainian Catholic Archbishop of Philadelphia, Borys Gudziak, who ordained him in Ukraine. He thanked his formers classmates from Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary who accompanied the Liturgy with singing. "Thank you for keeping all the displaced, besieged, and suffering people of Ukraine in your prayers", said Fr. Volodymyr. After the Liturgy, he individually blessed each person who attended the service.

The Gift of Mercy

A story is told about a little boy who was sent to the school principal for misbehaving. After the little boy told him what he had done wrong, the principal took out a piece of paper and wrote the boy's name upon it, as well as the date and the reason for which the boy had been sent to him.

Then, the principal told the boy, "Timmy, I know that you are a good boy and you've never before been sent to me for misbehaving. Therefore, if you are not sent to me again this year for misbehaving, I will tear up this piece of paper and no one will ever know anything about it." The little boy remembered this as the most powerful lesson in mercy that he had ever learned.

The most powerful example of mercy that we, as Christians, have ever witnessed is our Lord's resurrection, which we still continue to gloriously celebrate. However, earlier this week, on Wednesday, we also celebrated the Feast of Mid-Pentecost. Mid-Pentecost begins to set our sights on the reception of another of God's great gifts of mercy - the Gift of the Holy Spirit, Who will descend upon us on Pentecost Sunday.

Through the Resurrection, we know of God's mercy in that He has given us the gift of eternal life. Through the Descent of the Holy Spirit, we know of God's mercy in that He has not abandoned us. Rather, He sent the Holy Spirit to dwell among us, to dwell within us, and to nourish us, bless us and heal us - especially through the Holy Mysteries.
