FATHER'S DAY PRAYER

Thank you for the laughter, for the good times that we share,
Thanks for always listening, for trying to be fair.
Thank you for your comfort, when things are going bad,
Thank you for the shoulder, to cry on when I'm sad.
This prayer is a reminder that all my life through,
I'll be thanking God for a special dad like you.

Ukrainian Bishops are creating a broad international coalition in support of the Motherland

Today, we, the Ukrainian bishops, are looking for friends, creating a broad international coalition in support of the Motherland, and, apparently, every time we pray for our military, the boys and girls at the front. We are looking for ways how to help overcome the humanitarian crisis caused by the war and how to treat those injured by it, stated the Father and Head of the UGCC, His Beatitude Sviatoslav, in his address on the 67th week of Russia's full-scale invasion of Ukrainian land. The Primate said that over the past week, an important event took place in our Church — a regular session of the Permanent Synod of Bishops, which this time was called in Wroclaw, in western Poland, and noted that about 300,000 Ukrainians are currently living in the city and its surroundings. So the bishops were working on the pastoral care of Ukrainian emigrants and refugees. "We tried to be with our people, to listen to their voice, and thus to be their voice before the local authorities and the local church," the patriarch emphasized. "When we met with Ukrainians, we always asked them to dream about the future and Ukraine — that being temporarily outside their native land, they should acquire the appropriate skills, experience and broaden the horizons of their worldview to return home and rebuild their homeland from the ruins," said His Beatitude Sviatoslav. The Head of the UGCC sincerely thanked all the people from different parts of the world, in particular from European countries, for their favor and compassion for Ukrainians, opening their homes, churches, and hearts to them: "Thank you for the fact that today, here in Wroclaw, we can feel that the future of Ukraine is being forged — revived, rebuilt."

Prove Your Faith by Your Trust

'Look at the birds of the air,' says Jesus. What a splendid example for our faith to follow! If God's providence bestows an unfailing supply of food on the birds of the air who neither sow nor reap, we ought to realize that the reason for people's supply running short is human greed. The fruits of the earth were given to feed all without distinction and nobody can claim any particular rights. Instead, we have lost the sense of the communion of goods, rushing to turn these goods into private property. The birds do not know famine because they do not claim anything specially for themselves and neither do they have any envy of others. 'Consider the lilies of the field: not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed like one of these. If God so clothes the grass which is alive today and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe one of you!' Listen to these stupendous and uplifting words. With this parable of flowers and grass the Lord urges us to hope that God will also be merciful to us. Nothing is more persuasive than a glance at unthinking creatures who have received such beautiful dress from Providence. Surely we should be all the more ready to believe that human beings, if they entrust themselves completely to God and free themselves of all their worries, will not lack anything.
